To whom it may concern,

It is with great pleasure that I recommend Ms. Debbie Seid from Coaching for Excellence Within. Ms Seid has worked with our organization for over 10 years doing teambuilding and training with our sales force and executive coaching for mid and upper level management.

Debbie is well known and respected at all levels of our organization. In addition to being highly skilled at what she does, Debbie is very intuitive, articulate and has a unique ability to gain trust and respect very quickly. She holds people accountable for results yet puts them at ease in the process.

Through her work, our corporate culture has become much more open and enjoys a significantly higher degree of trust and collaboration, particularly with our sales staff.

With great confidence, I highly recommend Ms. Seid for any job in her field. You will not be disappointed!

Should you need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.
