Re: Letter of Recommendation

To Whom It May Concern:

As the Chairman & CEO of Global View Partners, it is my personal and professional pleasure to provide this 'Letter of Recommendation' for Ms Debbie Seid at 'Coaching for Excellence Within'. Our company has been extremely fortunate to have benefited from Ms Seid's expertise and comprehensive programs in the areas of: Executive Coaching, Leadership Training, Strategic Planning, and Team Building over the past six (6) years.

By way of background, Global View Partners is a strategic investment, M&A, and strategic consulting company actively involved in the global wireless industry. Global View Partners is actively involved in providing strategic and management consulting for numerous public and private wireless companies worldwide. Our clients include Microsoft, Qualcomm, AT&T Wireless, T-Mobile, Telefonica, Vodafone, Comcast, Cablevision, Marvell Semiconductor, as well as many other top-tier corporations around the world.

Given our company's continual need to effectively and efficiently interface and work within the various executive levels of our corporate clients in different parts of the world, ensuring that we operate as a cohesive team to provide rapid, clear, and positive results are our top priorities. By working closely with 'Coaching for Excellence Within' over the years, we have been able to achieve these objectives on a consistent basis. Ms Seid has also personally played a significant role in helping us establish and maintain a positive, high-performing, and rewarding corporate culture and workplace.

Our Senior Partners and I have been extremely happy with the services provided by "Coaching for Excellence Within" over the years. Debbie has a unique ability to listen deeply and access the core issues of the situation. She works in a manner that honors all parties involved and is able to help those she works with, whether it is a team or an individual, achieve significant and often times transformational changes. Debbie is equally effective at all levels of the organization and is able to skillfully handle any personality type she encounters. It is in this light that I provide this letter of recommendation to anyone fortunate enough to be able to retain 'Coaching for Excellence Within' to help them achieve similar results. Please do not hesitate to call me directly in the event you have any specific questions.
